

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is Propaganda at its most obvious form. What Kerry did 30 years ago is not important to this election. Allowing Sinclair to broadcast this is indecent. I will make a complaint if this program airs

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Let this remain a fair election. Do not let this injustice happen. This is why we have the FCC to prevent the William Randolph Hearst's of the world from controlling what we think. Please stand up stand up and be an advocate for me and stop this broadcast.
